

Cleveland Metroparks 2020:
The Emerald Necklace Centennial Plan

Wanted: YOUR ideas!

Cleveland Metroparks is in the process of defining a strategic vision to guide future decision-making and priorities for the park district for the next ten years. To gather public input, Cleveland Metroparks is hosting a second series of public meetings which will start with a presentation and offer the public the opportunity to provide comments and share ideas.

Come share your ideas at the following meetings:

Monday, May 2, 2011: CanalWay Visitor Center
Ohio & Erie Canal Reservation, East 49th Street, Cuyahoga Hts.
6:30—8:30 pm

Discussion focuses on Ohio & Erie Canal, Washington, West Creek, Brookside, Garfield, Bedford & Brecksville Reservations

Tuesday, May 3, 2011: North Chagrin Nature Center
North Chagrin Reservation, Mayfield Village
6:30—8:30 pm

Discussion focuses on Euclid Creek, North Chagrin & South Chagrin Reservations

Wednesday, May 4, 2011: Rocky River Nature Center
Rocky River Reservation, 24000 Valley Parkway, North Olmsted
6:30—8:30 pm

Discussion focuses on Huntington, Bradley Woods, Rocky River, Big Creek, Mill Stream Run & Hinckley Reservations

All are welcome!

For more information, call 216-635-3238
or visit www.clevelandmetroparks.com

